

Reliable Performance, Industrial Quality

A serger is the perfect companion machine for the developing sewist and a must for creating professionally finished garments. The XG-43D offers a wide range of stitching features in a compact machine. A DVD is included with this machine to walk you through serging basics and get you stitching today!

Adjustable Feed

Coded Thread Path

Companion DVD

XG-43D ~ Key Features

Create decorative overedge or picot finish, rolled hem or narrow to wide seams; ensure precise seam tension on any fabric with individual tension adjustments, differential feed and adjusting the finished cutting width.

- 3 or 4 Thread overlock
- Seam length 1 – 5 mm
- Seam width: 1 – 5.7 mm
- Speed: 1300 SPM
- Adjustable cutting width
- Built-in rolled hem plate
- Differential feed
- Slim foot
- Needle guard front and back
- Retractable upper knife
- Numbered tension dials
- Color coded thread guide
- Snap on presser feet
- Electronic speed control
- DVD included

The JANOME 3160 makes a great companion sewing machine with this serger!

